

Snap

There was some hot intel circulating 'tween a select few Wings and Grade 1 folks.

It involves a Singularity the Ring was allegedly almost done observing.

Details about its origins or whether it's really theirs were sealed airtight...

GRP

But this footage... It matches everything that's been known so far.

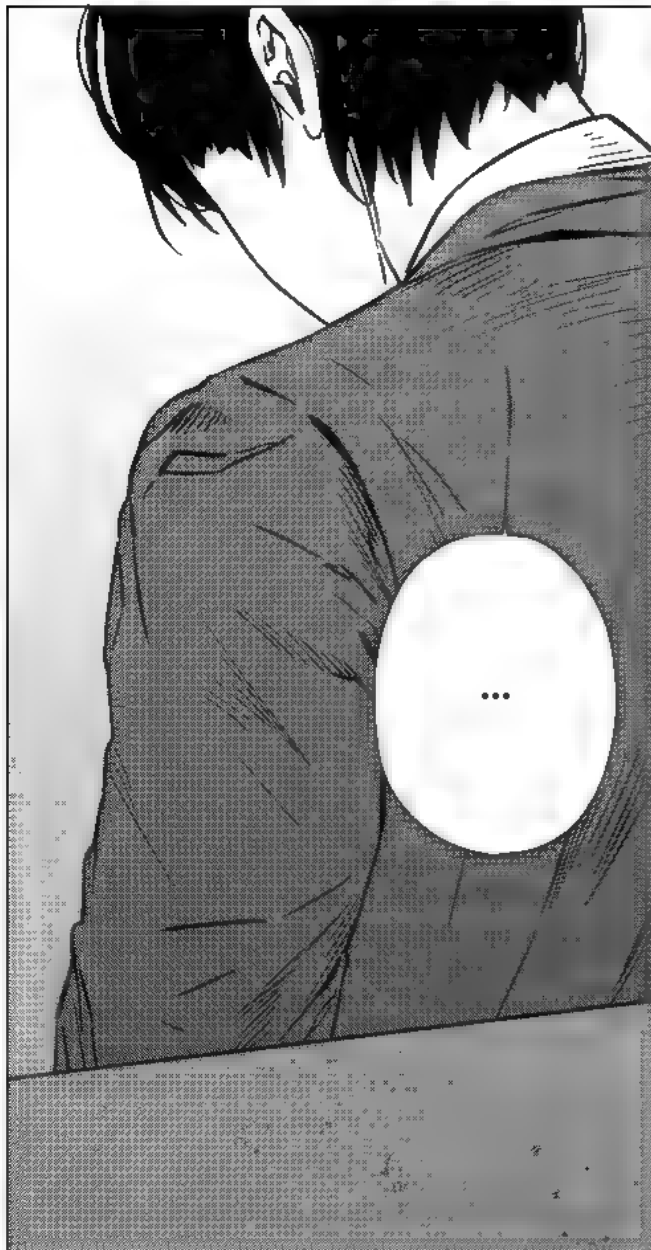

You've struck gold, Garnet!

We'll bring over all the cash cows!!

But,
you see...

When you
spend a month
with nothing
left but chicken
bones to eat...

You'll drop
all your shame
on a dime.

That's how it is for all of us.

CLENCH

The hells
and high waters a Fixer goes through...

Train them
to best sniff out
the scents of potential yields
and follow
the "flow".

*This is the kind of path that lies ahead
of you.*

*You should adapt to it
before it breaks you.*

*Because I see nothing else
but saving Lapis—*

And making them pay for what they've done!

This...

*It's the flow
I'm taking.*
